BARK & WINE 2017

SATURDAY OCTOBER 28TH 6-9 PM
DOUBLETREE HOTEL, DURANGO

On June 12th, Enrique Rubalcava awoke to his dogs barking and his home on fire. It was close to 5 am. He rushed outside only to turn back around to search for his dogs. He looked for as long as he could before escaping through a window, but he was only able to find 3 of the 5 pups.

Hours later, officers from La Plata County Animal Protection were going over the scene and found one of the dogs, a 10-pound Pomeranian, burned, dehydrated, but alive. They brought him immediately back to La Plata County Humane Society (LPCHS) where Dr. Heather Perkins treated him for his burns and smoke inhalation. For weeks, the staff and volunteers fostered little Charmer while his skin and coat began to heal and his dad found a new place to live.

Providing emergency assistance to pets – and pet owners – during difficult times, is just one of the many things LPCHS does for our community. We also:

- House and rehome close to 3,000 dogs and cats every year
- Treat all manageable illnesses and health issues before adoption
- Provide training, behavior modification and daily enrichment to animals in our care
- Provide free and low-cost community services, including: vaccination and spay and neuter clinics; workshops and dog training classes; and kid's camps and internship opportunities
- Act as a resource to all four-corners rescues, shelters and government agencies
- Act as the central point of contact for all pets during community fires and emergencies

Although we could never recoup the cost of sheltering, vaccinating, altering, microchipping, treating illnesses, training and socializing community animals, we work very hard to be as self-sufficient as possible. Writing numerous grants, providing multiple options for giving and of course working to ensure our thrift store thrives in every way possible, are just some of the ways we do this; our Annual Bark and Wine Fundraiser is another.

Located at the Doubletree hotel, this year's event celebrates the 2nd Chances we provide animals. With games of chance, where everyone's a winner, attendees can try their hand at the Putt-for-Pets, Wrangle an Ale, Wine Pull, Take a Chance Wall, or participate in the Live and Silent Auctions. The evening also includes live music, presentation of the Animal Advocate of the Year Award, heavy hors d'oeuvres desserts and cash bars.

Donation Receipt

Thank you for donating to the La Plata County Humane Society!

Each year LPCHS cares for more than 3,000 lost, homeless, sick and injured animals in La Plata and surrounding counties. We provide training and support to neighboring animal shelters, run programs in youth centers, schools and hospitals and always strive to be a role model for the humane care and treatment of all animals.

With your generous donation we can continue in our work of promoting and encouraging lifelong homes for all companion animals.

LPCHS is a 501c3 non-profit
